they are to get rid of you when they applaud like that. That is what Mike Albert said. We had better get on to Final Reading. These pain pills I am taking are doing strange things. LB 208, Mr. Clerk, on Final Reading.

ASSISTANT CLERK: LB 208. Read on Final Reading. (See pages 1293 and 1294 for vote, Journal.)

(RECORDER TURNED OFF.)

PRESIDENT: Do you want recognition? LB 274?

CLERK: Mr. President, there is a unanimous consent request to bracket LB 274 to April 12th. That is signed Senator Kelly.

PRESIDENT: Senator Kelly asks unanimous consent to bracket LB 274 right where it is. Is there an objection? Seeing none, it is so ordered. LB 305.

ASSISTANT CLERK: LB 305. Read on Final Reading.

(RECORDER TURNED OFF. READ LB 305A, 345, 467, 484. See pages 1294 - 1298, Journal.)

SPEAKER LUEDTKE PRESIDING

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: LB 484 passes. LB 503 will not be read today on Final Reading because an A bill must catch up with it and we will simply place 503A at the head of General File when we take it up this morning, later on this morning.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 77 and LB 456 are ready for your signature.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: The Legislature being in session and capable of doing business, I propose to sign and I go sign LB 77 and LB 456.

CLERK: Mr. President, Legislative Resolutions No. 47 and No. 22 are ready for your signature.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: While the Legislature is in session and capable of doing business, I propose to sign and I do sign LR 22 and LR 47.

CLERK: Mr. President, an explanation of vote. Read. (See page 1298, Journal.) Signed Senator Warner. That is all, Mr. President.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Senator Bereuter. Senator Bereuter, would you approach the Clerk's desk a moment please. The Clerk has something to give you there. I would like to read something to the attention of the Legislature. I have been given a communication of the presiding officer from the 1976-1977 Innocents Society. It reads: read. (See pages 1298 and 1299, Journal.) Thanks again to the members of the Innocents for making this a memorable occasion and congratulations again to Senator Bereuter. We will now get back to mundane and routine matters and we will take up
